

The Pangaea Project Youth Speakers Collective

Build your resume, leadership and public speaking skills with The Pangaea Project's Youth Speakers Collective. This opportunity will give you speaking experience by telling your story and will be a great addition to your resume. You will also get to work alongside your peers to better your community through planned service days.

Core Responsibilities

- 1 year commitment
- Commitment to at least 2 local speaking engagements over the course of the year.
- Commitment to at least 2 service days throughout the year
- Attend the September 30 fundraising event
- Writing and keeping an updated bio that will be featured on our website.

Please submit your resume and a cover letter that includes why you would like to be a part of Youth Speakers Collective to Sarah at sarah@thepangaeaproject.org by June 30.
